AUDIENCE COMMENTS:

Christian Marcus commented about the Industrial park and possible sale of the property. He feels the Township and Village should work together with the County to develop a plan for that area. Also discussed the cost of improvement for the Recycling area at the Township Hall and at Wetzel Lake, for not only total maintenance but also for paying for the portable toilets that were removed in the spring and not replaced by the Company contracted by the County because of vandalism.

OLD BUSINESS:

1. Sidewalk project north of Mancelona has begun this week and should be completed soon.
2. Road resurfacing on Cedar River Road has begun and should be done this week.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Motion by Chuck Johnson supported by Sue Robinson to require a $50.00 deposit for use of the Senior Center, and the Meeting room at the Township Hall for Benefits and Funerals. To be returned if facility is in the same condition as before the event. This to take effect September 16, 2019. Motion carried

AUDIENCE COMMENTS:

Christian Marcus reported that Donna DeVerney, long-time volunteer at the Food Pantry, was retiring and volunteers were very much needed.

ADJOURNMENT: There being no further business before the Board, the meeting adjourned at 6:54 PM.
